The Spiked Ball Demon performs 1x Slam per turn plus the following:

The SBD performs an additional Slam at the end of the 3rd player's turn.

Whenever the SBD rolls a natural 17+ to hit, it makes a 3rd Slam attack at the end of the last player's turn.

The SBD performs Eat Magic whenever it passes a ST vs. a hostile spell. It swallows the incoming magic, nullifies the damage and heals itself for the amount of nullified damage. Eat Magic does not work against AOE unless the SBD is the primary target of the spell.

The SBD becomes briefly disoriented after a successful Slam, granting a +5 to hit for melee enemies within 10', and a +5 to hit for ranged enemies within their normal range.

Slam: The SBD zooms up to 100' and slams into a single target. Failed ST knocks the target prone.

Eat Magic: Swallows hostile spells on a passed ST and heals itself for the amount of damage.
